BE BOLD.

MAKE A DREAM COME TRUE RIGHT NOW.

Wouldn't it feel good to be a hero, right from your theater seat?
Make a quick donation from your phone at www.youthperformanceco.org.

- $500 will send a student to Bay Lake Camp this summer, an inspiring opportunity many of our teens cannot afford.
- $250 will provide a scholarship to a student for a summer workshop where they might become Hamilton, Elphaba or Ariel.
- $100 provides a Flex Pass to a family for nights of imagination and delight.
- $30 helps a grandparent take their grandchild to a YPC matinee for an afternoon of magic.

Janet Langhart Cohen's

ANNE & EMMETT

Janet Langhart Cohen's Anne and Emmett is an imaginary conversation between Anne Frank and Emmett Till, both victims of racial intolerance and hatred. Frank is the 13-year-old Jewish girl whose diary provided a gripping perspective of the Holocaust. Till is the 14-year-old African-American boy whose brutal murder in Mississippi sparked the American Civil Rights Movement. The beyond the grave encounter draws the startling similarities between the two youths' harrowing experiences at the hands of societies that could not protect them.

The play is an opportunity to promote healing and important conversation about racial justice.

Anne and Emmett contains derogatory racial language and imagery that reflects the realities of the lives and deaths of these two young victims of hate crimes. Recommended for 4th grade+

JOSEPH and the Amazing Technicolor™ Dreamcoat

Lyrics by Tim Rice, Music by Andrew Lloyd Webber

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a reimagining of the often-told story of Joseph, his father Jacob, eleven brothers, and the coat of many colors. Told entirely through song, the musical follows preferred son Joseph, as he is sold into slavery by his brothers. As he discovers his ability to interpret dreams, he soon finds himself in front of the mighty Pharaoh. Joseph's counsel elevates him to Pharaoh's right-hand man and reunites him with his family. This irresistible musical is the perfect family activity!
